Last weekend being the middle of August presented the usual dilemma. Airdrie and Canmore had their big car shows on Saturday, Okotoks and Claresholm on Sunday.

I chose the closest ones without any favoritism – there are an equal number of people in each city who don't call me first when they need an appraisal.

Our old '34 was well-received in each show and my trophy wife, Popsie even came along to Okotoks. I thought maybe she was taking an interest in these old cars, but it was something about a bunch of quilts being on display.

If this looks easy, just try and narrow down 300 pictures to a single page...

Those blue Portapotties are always a welcome sight at a car show... although Fred found the one on the far right to be kinda short on headroom – and downright awkward.

Fred Nelson is an accredited Calgary auto appraiser. He made bail one more time, so we can expect a few more amateur attempts at journalism down the road.
